

Mini 2nd Thought Journal

- Choose 5 pieces of 6" x 6" scrapbook paper, cardstock weight.
- Decide on which TWO 6" x 6" pieces of paper will be the front covers.
- Find the top of all 5 pieces of paper and mark "top ↑" on the backside.
- Score the 2 papers you choose for the front covers and 2 other pages for the middle at the 3" mark.
- Cut the last piece in half on the 3" mark.

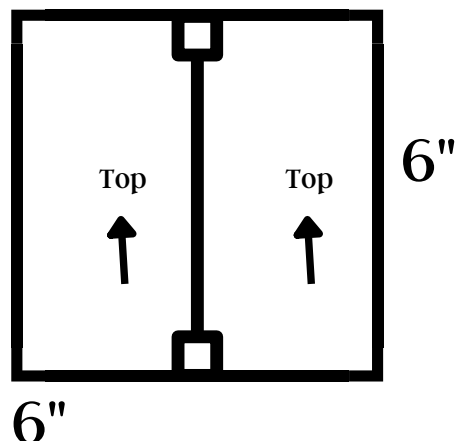

KEY:

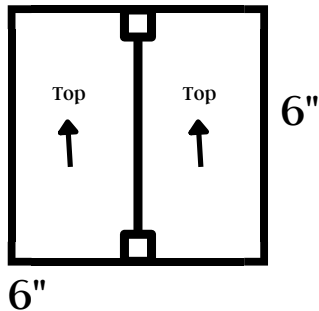

Score at the 3" Line
4 sheets of scrapbook
paper

Make an arrow and write top on all four sheet as shown.

You now have 4 pages that look like the square below.

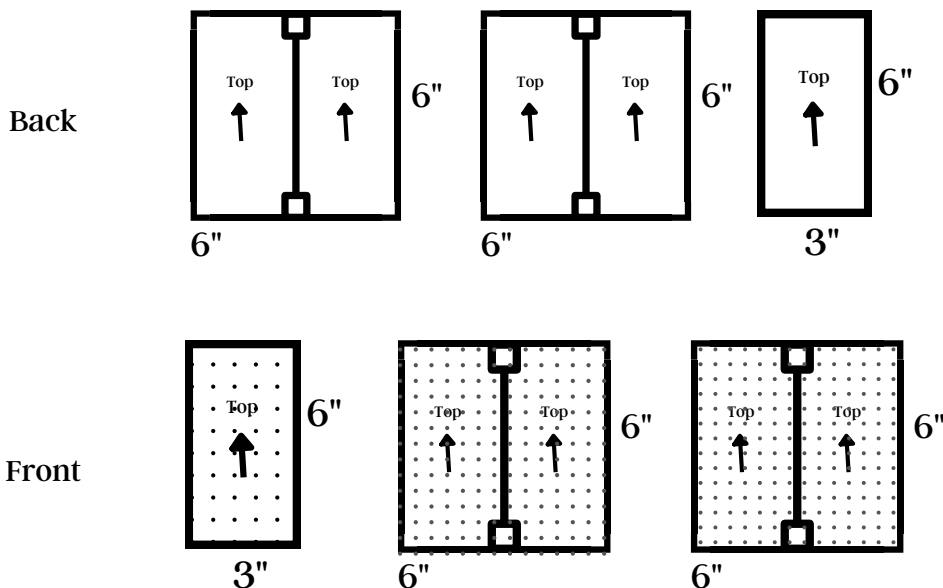

You now have 2 pages that look like the square below.

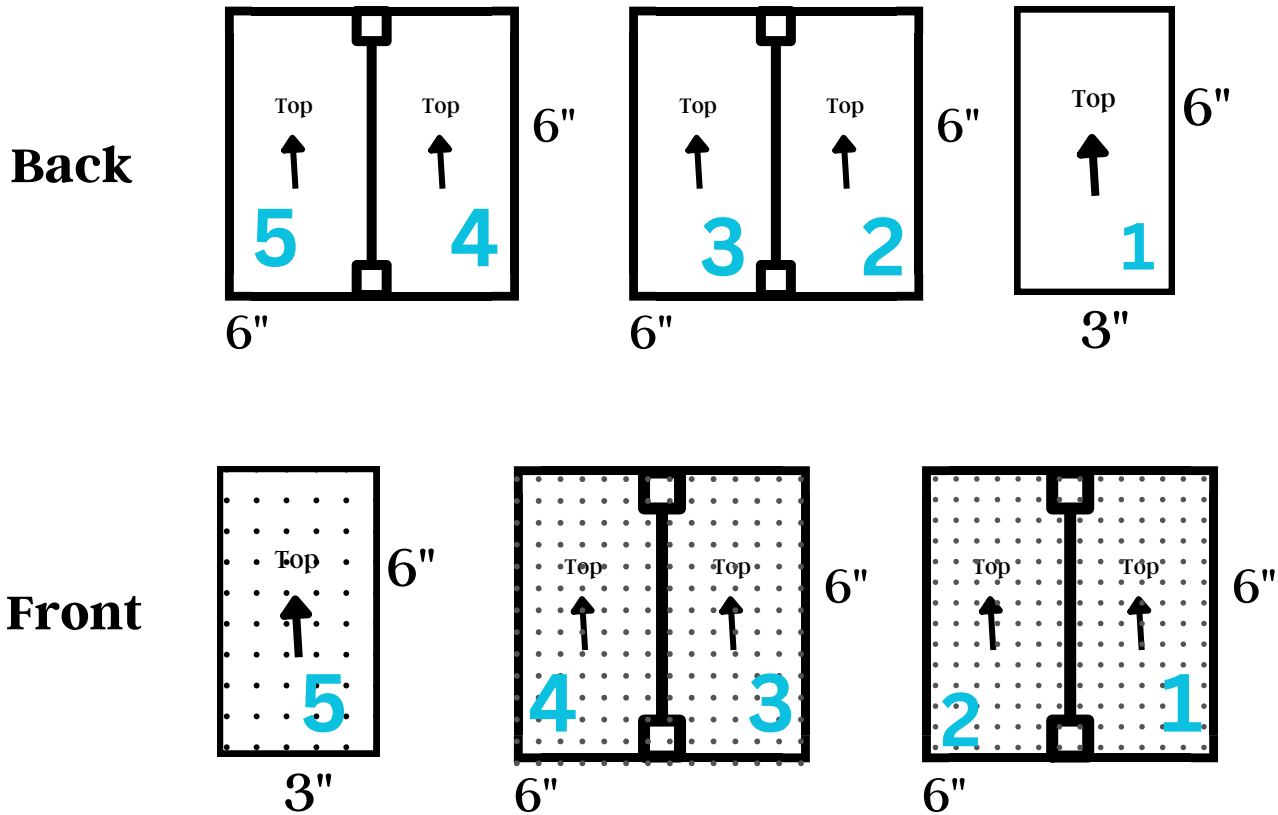

- Use washi tape to strengthen the score line. Add extra glue on washi tape. Then fold and press each page on the scoreline.

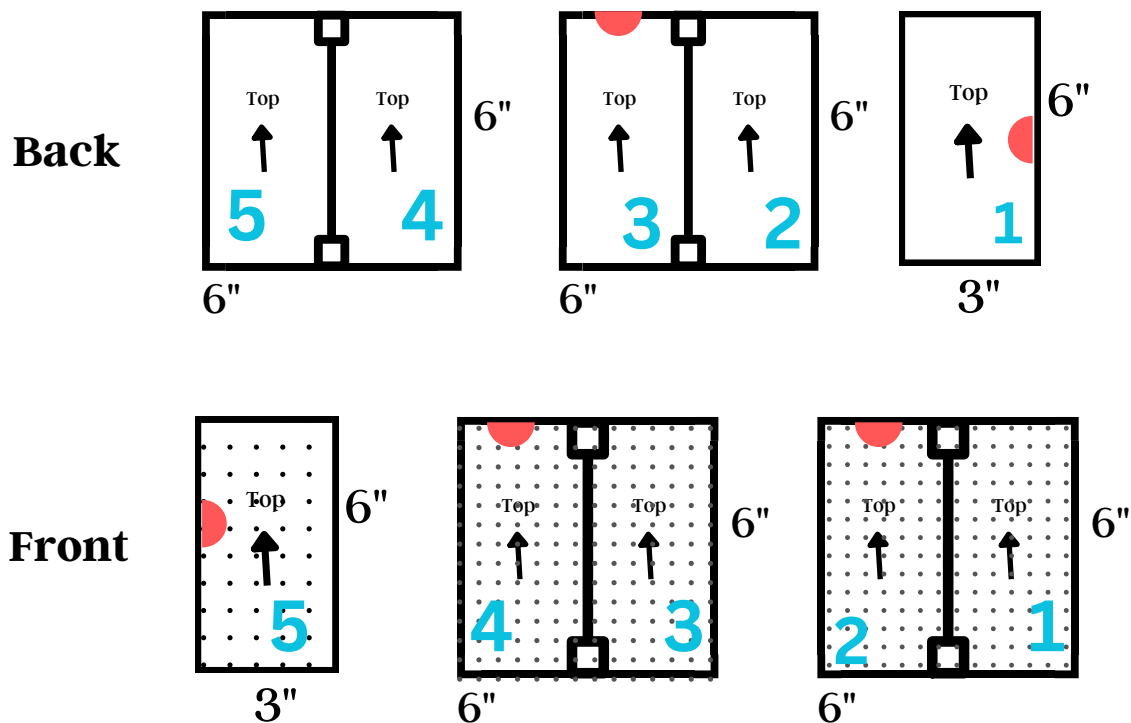

- Lay all of your pieces like the example on the next page. Three with the back up and three with the top design up. Three with the back up and three with the top design up.

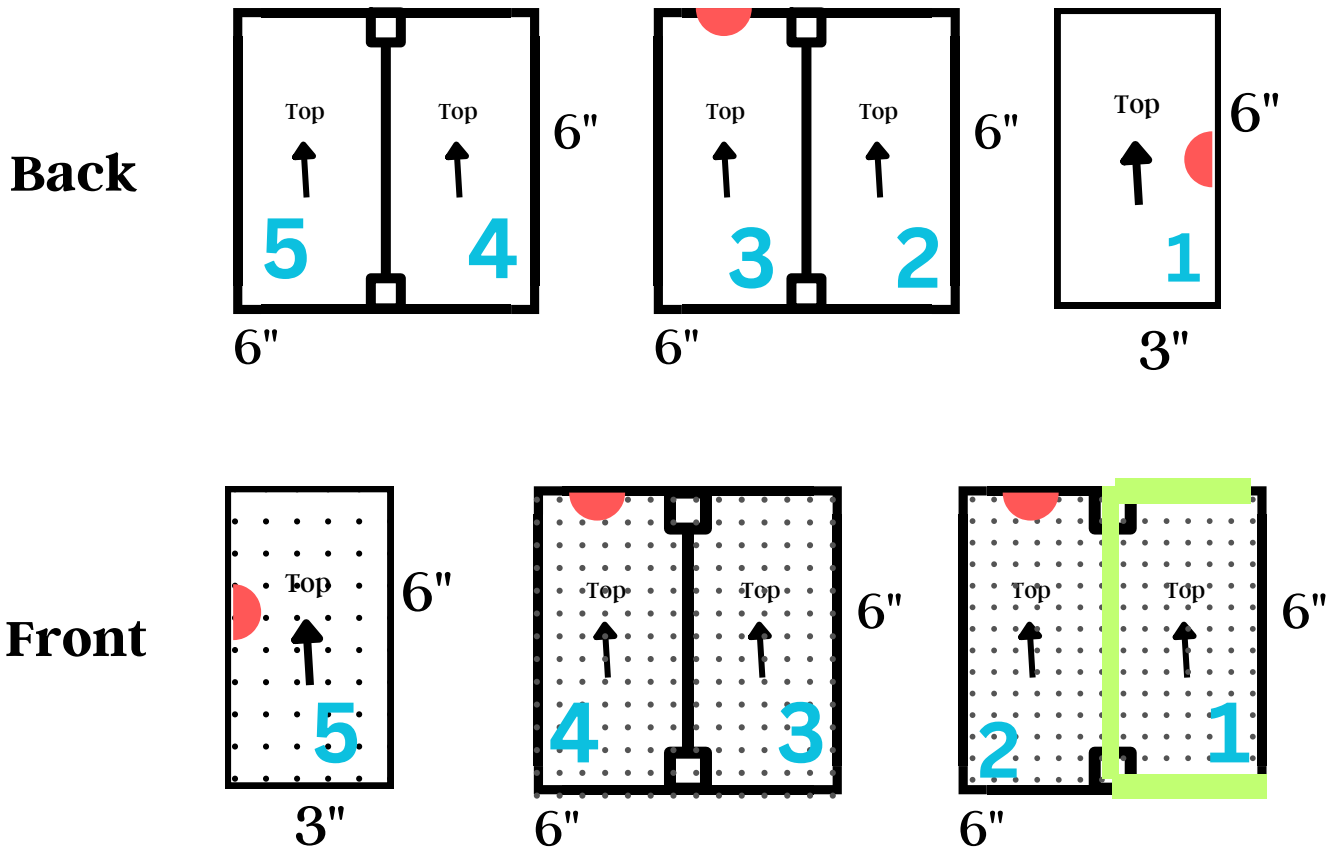

- Now number your pieces like the blue numbers below.

- Next punch thumb notches where indicated in red.

- Next, run a thin line of glue one panel at a time, along the edges indicated in green.
- Start with both 1's placing the wrong side together.

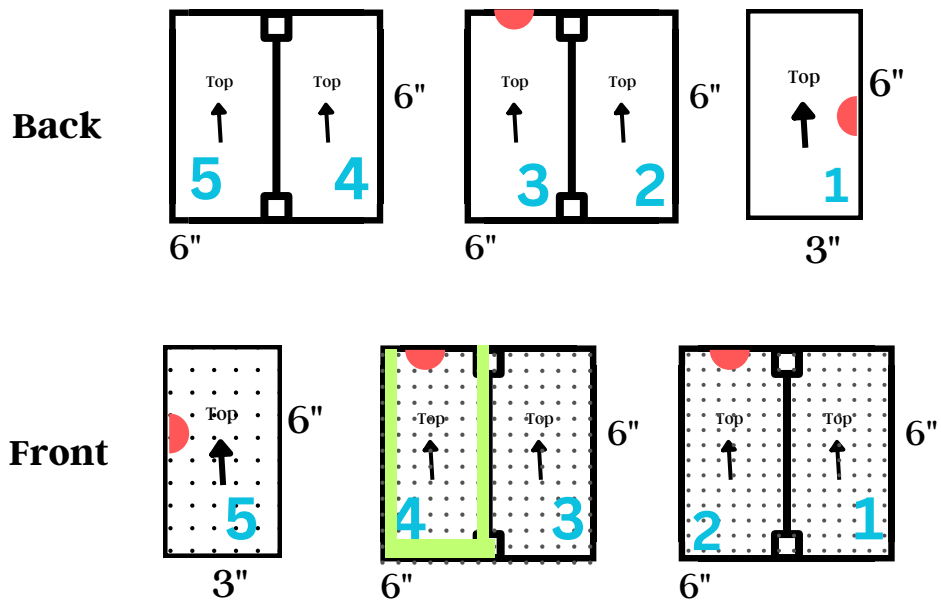

- Next, run a thin line of glue along the edges indicated in green.
- Start with both 2's placing the wrong side together. Continue gluing all panels together to match each number.

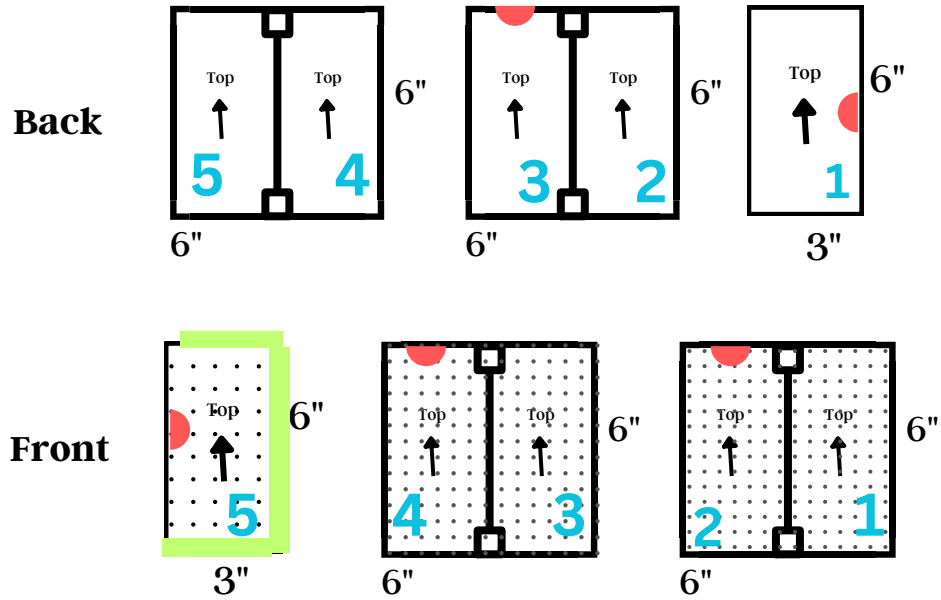

Next:

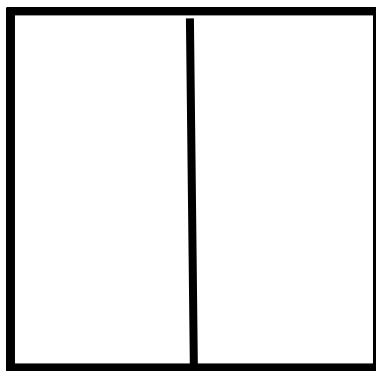

Next:

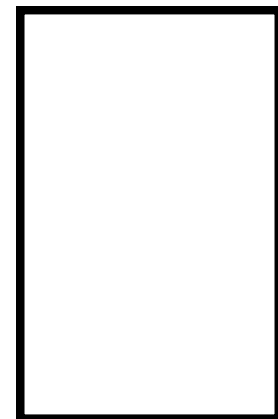

Next:

- Now all 5 pieces of scrapbook paper should be glued together.
- Now cut 20 sheets of paper to measure $5 \frac{1}{4}$ " x 5.5 ". then fold in half to measure $2 \frac{5}{8}$ " x $5 \frac{1}{2}$ ".

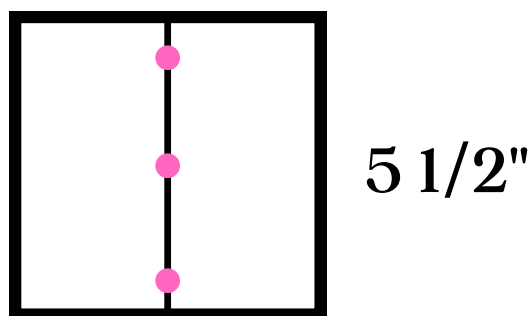

$5 \frac{1}{4}$ "

$2 \frac{5}{8}$ "

- Sort into stacks of 5 pages each. You should have 4 stacks of pages.
- With an awl, needle, or other pointy objects, punch holes in the center of each stack as shown in pink. 1/2" from the top, 2 1/4" from top, and 1/2" from the bottom.
- Before punching make sure that your pages are all facing the right way.
- Sew each signature into one of four spines.
- Fold your journal in accordion style and you should have a finished journal. Now decorate to your liking.

5 1/2"

5 1/4 "